Charlie Fancy Therapy
of The Eaves, Parklands, 3 Paris, Railton Road, Guildford. GU2 9JX. UK.
("us" or "we")

Welcome to Our Services

We are committed to providing you with the best possible experience. These Terms and Conditions outline the legal framework of our relationship and include important information about your therapy sessions.

By using our services, you confirm that you have read and understood these Terms and Conditions. To proceed, please tick the box on the Agreement form to indicate your acceptance. If you attend your first session, without expressing any disagreement, it will be understood that you accept these Terms.

Sessions and cancellations

2. Our therapy sessions ("sessions") are scheduled for 50 minutes and generally take place on a weekly basis. The Sessions will take place at the times and on the dates that we have pre-agreed. All sessions will take place at The Eaves, Parklands, 3 Paris, Railton Road, Guildford. GU2 9JX unless you are notified otherwise. Alternatively, some clients may choose to work online via Zoom if preferred.

2.1. Where sessions are held in third party venues, you must comply at all times with such venue's policies and rules in relation to such venue (particularly fire safety and health and safety rules). You may be required to leave the venue if you do not comply with such policies and rules (and I shall not be obliged to refund you any amounts paid in relation to such Session).

2.2. You are responsible for your own belongings that you take to a Session and neither us nor any third-party venue can be held liable for any loss, damage, theft or destruction of any of your belongings.

2.3. If you cause any loss or liability to a third party (e.g. by not complying with their policies), you must reimburse us in full and indemnify us against any claim from any third party (and associated costs and expenses (including professional fees)) arising out of your actions or inactions while at a third-party venue.

3. It is very important that you turn up for the Sessions on time. Please plan to arrive early in case of heavy traffic or some other delaying factor. Unfortunately, if you arrive late for your Session, we will not be able to continue past the scheduled end time due to the scheduling of other clients (and we will not be obliged to provide any refund to you).

4. We will ask you to complete a Client Information form before our first meeting. This form is essential for collecting basic information, such as your name, age, and address, and will be kept solely for contacting you when necessary and in the case of emergency. It is very important that you provide accurate and complete information. If circumstances change in the future, we may request an updated form.

5. If you need to cancel a Session, you may do so without charge if you provide at least 24 hours' notice to us. You must give me this notice by calling 07966 515427 or emailing at charlie@charlifancy.co.uk. If you provide less than 24 hours' notice of cancellation or miss a Session, you will be charged the full payment for that Session.

6. Although the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 ("Regulations") may apply to the provision of services provided under this agreement, you agree that we may commence the performance of the services before the end of the 14-day cancellation period referred to in the Regulations. If we have already started work on the services by the time you cancel the agreement, you agree to pay us any costs we have reasonably incurred in starting to perform the services. If we have provided the services in full before the expiry of the cancellation period, then you lose the right to cancel. If you cancel this agreement and we have not commenced performance of the services and you have made any payment in advance for services that have not been provided to you, we will refund these amounts to you. Subject to the above, you may cancel this agreement at any time within the cancellation period.

Fees and payment

7. Session Charges

We may offer you a free telephone conversation to determine if we are suitable to work together. Following this conversation, we will charge £85 per session for individual clients and £100 per session for couples including VAT where applicable. This is payable in advance of the session and if payment has not been received in cleared funds prior to the session, we will not proceed with the session. We may charge you for blocks of sessions in advance.

7.1 Insurance Companies

We work with several insurance companies that may fund some client sessions. If you intend to use insurance to cover your sessions, please confirm this during your initial conversation. Payment for sessions will be required at the time of service, and we will invoice your insurance company directly for reimbursement. Please note that sessions billed to insurance companies will incur a charge of £90 per session. You are responsible for checking with your insurance provider regarding coverage, co-payments, excesses, and any necessary authorisations. In the event that your insurance company refuses to pay for the sessions, you will be responsible for the payment of those sessions. Please ensure you understand the terms of your insurance policy, including any excesses that may apply.

Please be advised that if you are a client of Healthcare RM, you will be liable for the full session fee in the event of a late cancellation (less than 24 hours) or if you do not attend a scheduled session (DNA). It is your responsibility to inform us of any cancellations within the specified notice period to avoid incurring this charge.

Confidentiality

8. Confidentiality is a key aspect of our work together. We are committed to providing a safe and trusting environment for all clients, including young people.

8.1. General confidentiality

We may discuss matters that are sensitive in nature during our sessions. It is important to know that all information shared during our sessions will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to anyone without consent, except in specific circumstances outlined below.

- Where you consent to us sharing your information
- Where we are compelled to disclose your information by court or by regulations or law.
- Where we consider you or somebody else to be at risk or to prevent illegal acts or harm to you or to others

8.2. Confidentiality for Young People

When working with young people, additional considerations apply.

- If a young person is under the age of 16, it may be necessary to share information with parents/guardians in some discussions to ensure that they receive the best support possible. This will be communicated beforehand to ensure comfort with the approach.

- Information from Parents - If a parent or guardian shares information about a young person, it is essential that the young person is informed of this. We cannot keep any information from the young person that relates to them, as this would compromise the safe and trusting space essential for effective therapy. Transparency in communication is crucial, and efforts will be made to ensure that the young person is aware of what is shared.
- Legal and Safety Exceptions – there are certain situations where confidentiality may be broken, such as if there is a risk of harm to the young person or others, or if there is a requirement to report any incidents of abuse. These circumstances will be explained clearly.
- Information Sharing – General information may be shared with parents or guardians about progress, but consent will always be sought first and wishes regarding what can be shared will be respected.
- Rights – Young clients have the right to ask questions about confidentiality and to discuss any concerns they may have. It is important to ensure that they feel safe and comfortable during sessions.
